A VOYAGE ROUND MY FATHER by John Mortimer

Shepperton Players present a warm, affectionate portrait of a son's relationship with his father. Growing up in the shadow of a brilliant barrister - whose blindness is never mentioned - John Mortimer yearns for his father's love. But the father is passionate only about his garden and his hatred of visitors. The son survives his boarding school years by creating stories. Then when, as a young man, he meets Elizabeth, a note of reality is introduced into his life - one which challenges the silence of his family...

A delightful miscellany of plucking and blowing of English baroque music by Martino Bitti, Lorenzo Bocchi and Nicola Matteis (all living and working in England, despite their names) with works from across the water by Turlough O'Carolan and pieces from The Division Flute and John Playford's influential handbook The Dancing Master.

THURSDAY 14 JULY, 8 PM (EVENT 7) TICKETS £10

PORTRAITS IN SONG: EDITH PIAF & BERTOLT BRECHT performed by Elizabeth Mansfield, accompanied by Stephen Rose, piano

Elizabeth Mansfield's gripping portraits of Piaf and Brecht bring them both vividly to life in a dramatic evening interwoven with marvellous song. About as far apart as you can get, these two great figures of European chanson and ballad amazingly connect by contrast. Piaf engages the heart; Brecht engages the mind. And, unexpectedly, through the single voice of the performer, two powerfully different world views emerge.

FRIDAY 15 JULY, 8 PM (EVENT 8) TICKETS £8

LIBYA: EMERGING FROM THE SANDS

The acclaimed art lecturer Elizabeth Gordon returns to share the secrets of ancient Libya.
