THE NASHVILLE TEENS

They couldn't do their usual New Year spot this year, so we're delighted to welcome back for an Easter show one of the great names from the '60s who had two memorable Top Ten hits in 1964 with "Tobacco Road" and "Google Eye". They have played storming gigs to kick off the last three years, so we're delighted to have them back again this year. The line-up features their original lead singer Ray Phillips, who has had an unbroken half-century career with the band, as well as making solo records and performing with other line-ups like the British Invasion All-Stars with members of The Yardbirds, Creation and Downliners Sect. With him in the current Nashville Teens is a line-up of seasoned performers, including Colin Pattenden, member of Manfred Mann's Earth Band when they had their big hits back in the 70s, on bass, with Simon Spratley of The Ian Campbell Blues Band on keyboards, Ken Osborn from Levee Camp Moan on guitar, Adam Russel on harmonica and Adrian 'Spud' Metcalf on drums. It will be another night of classic '60s R&B, featuring in Ray one of the great voices of the beat era. It's also a special occasion as their double CD & DVD "Live At The Nag's Head 1983" is released on 23rd March and will be on sale. There's more information at www.Nashville-Teens.com.
