FORTHCOMING EVENTS AT SUNBURY C.C.

FRIDAY 16TH NOVEMBER THE DOWNLINERS SECT

£7.50 on the door

We welcome one of the legendary names of '60s R&B who vied with the likes of The Rolling Stones, The Yardbirds and Pretty Things in their EMI days, and have stood the test of time as one of best bands on the blues and R&B scene. Still led by the original founder Don Craine (guitar/vocals), and including longtime stalwart Keith Grant (bass/vocals), they have recently added Savoy Brown Blues Band founder member John O'Leary on harmonica and vocals, the line-up completed by Del Dwyer (guitar/vocals) and Mark Freeman (drums). They regularly feature at Twickenham's celebrated Eel Pie Club, and they will undoubtedly appeal to our many blues and R&B-loving members. FRIDAY 14TH DECEMBER THE BEAT LEGENDS

£7.50 on the door

If you enjoyed the 60s All Stars, then you will love The Beat Legends. Yanni, their leader, first played at The Cavern in 1964, and has been true to his Liverpool roots ever since, with an act that celebrates all the great sounds of the Mersey Era. We've booked them specially early to ensure that we have a proper Christmas rave-up, so put this one in your diary! Find out all about them at www.thebeatlegends.co.uk

FRIDAY 18TH JANUARY THE GOOD OLD BOYS

£5.00 on the door

We are delighted to welcome back the Good Old Boys, who gave us a highly entertaining evening on what was probably the coldest night of the year last January. They comprises personalities from a variety of big name bands: Nick Simper (bass/vocals) who first played professionally with Johnny Kidd & The Pirates, and was then a founder member of Deep Purple and Warhorse; Peter Parks (guitar/vocals) also in Deep Purple spin-off Warhorse and then Fandango; Simon Bishop (guitar/vocals) toured with Renaissance, High Society, and The Monks (of Nice Legs, Shame About The Face fame); Richard Hudson (drums/vocals) percussionist with the Strawbs - also with Elmer Gantry's Velvet Opera, Hudson Ford, High Society and The Monks; Alan Barratt (lead singer) has worked alongside the likes of Chip Hawkes (Tremelos) and Cliff Bennett and the Rebel Rousers. We know from their first gig that the contrasting lead guitar styles of Peter and Simon makes for a really interesting range of rock, blues, R&B and country material and we very much look forward to seeing them again.
